Explanatory Note

(This does not form part of the notification but is intended to explain the purport).

At present there is no provision in the forms appended to the Kerala Beedi and Cigar Workers (Conditions of Employment) Rules, 1968 to show the date of entry into service of an employee. It is considered necessary to make provision for maintaining register of workers providing details of their service, service entry etc. It is also proposed to prepare the register of workers for the period of the whole service of the employees concerned.

The amendments are intended to achieve the above object.

AWARD

This is an Industrial Dispute between the Manager, A. K. Tea Estate, P. O. Varayal, North Wynad, Cannanore District and the workmen of the above estate representing workmen Servashree P. Checku, Ex-worker, A. K. Tea Estate, P. O. Varayal, North Wynad, Cannanore District (2) Minnadan Kunhiraman, Ex-worker, A. K. Tea Estate, P. O. Varayal, North Wynad, Cannanore District and (5) Mathai Kuriakose, Ex-worker, A.K. Tea Estate P.O. Varayal, North Wynad, Cannanore District over the dismissal of the abovementioned workers from the service of the A. K. Tea Estate referred to this Court for adjudication under Section 10 (1) (c) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act XIV of 1947) by the Government of Kerala, in their Order, Labour & Social Welfare (A) Department, G. O. Rt. No. 1431/71/LSWD Trivandrum, dated 12-7-1971.

2. In pursurance of notice issued, the parties entered appearance and put in their respective statements.

3. The case of the workers stated briefly is as follows. A false charge of theft of 7 bags of manure from the estate was levelled against them. Even though they submitted their explanation, the management of the estate was not satisfied with the explanation and a domestic enquiry was conducted against them. Under the pretext that in the domestic enquiry, the charge was proved the management dismissed them from service. These workmen were not given sufficient opportunity to defend themselves to prove their innocence in the enquiry. There was no proper evidence to prove the charge against them. Under the circumstances, it is requested that the dismissal of these workers may be set aside and the management may be directed to reinstate these workers in service with back wages.

4. The case of the management is to the following effect. On a charge of theft, a proper enquiry was conducted against these workers and they were found guilty of the charge levelled against them and accepting the finding of the enquiry officer, these workers were dismissed from service.

As they were dismissed after conducting a fair and proper domestic enquiry, there is no scope to interfere with the order of dismissal and that these workers are not entitled to any relief.

5. The parties did not adduce any evidence. Subsequently, the parties filed a memorandum of settlement settling the matter out of Court and requesting that an award may be passed in terms of the stipulations in the memorandum of settlement. Two separate memorandum of settlements are filed in this case. One memorandum of settlement is signed by workers Mathai Kuriakose, P. Checku, and Prabhakaran on behalf of the workers and Sri P. K. Mohammad, Attorney of Sri A. K. Kaderkutty, Proprietor of A. K. Tea Estate. The other memorandum of settlement is signed by Minnadan Kunhiraman and Minnadan Purushu on behalf of the workers and the Secretary of the A. K. Tea Estate on behalf of the management. These two memorandum of settlements are shown as annexure to this Award. The terms of these settlements seem to be reasonable. Under the circumstances, as requested for by the parties, an award is passed in terms of the memorandum of settlement shown as annexure to this award.

This award will come into force on the expiry of 30 days after its publication in the Government Gazette.

A. T. Kunhikora,

AWARD

This industrial dispute arises out of a complaint under section 33 A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act XIV of 1947) by Sri K. N. Muraleedharan Kartha, Anacottil Jayanthi, Pattanacaud, P. O., Shertallai against the opposite party the Joint Personnel Manager (T), The Fertilisers and Chemicals Travancore Limited, Udyogamandal P. O.

2. The case of the complainant stated briefly is as follows. The complainant Shri Muraleedharan K. ritha was an employee in the Fertilisers and Chemicals Travancore Limited. Two industrial disputes were pending before this Court and these industrial disputes were between the opposite party and their workmen. The complainant was interested in this dispute. While these industrial disputes were pending, the opposite party dismissed the complainant from service with effect from 22-12-1971 without seeking the approval of this Court and hence the opposite party contravened the provisions of section 33 (2) (b) of the Industrial Disputes Act. It is therefore requested that the order may be set aside and he may be reinstated in service.

3. The case of the opposite party is to the following effect. The opposite party has not contravened any of the provisions of section 33 (2) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. The complainant was not a workman concerned in or connected with the industrial disputes that were pending. The complainant was not dismissed from service for any misconduct connected with the industrial disputes which were pending. On the other hand, he was suspended from service for having misappropriated company's properties. A proper domestic enquiry was conducted on the charges levelled against him. He was given sufficient opportunity to defend himself in the domestic enquiry. After the domestic enquiry, the enquiry officer found him guilty of the charges levelled against him and based on the finding of the enquiry officer, the management dismissed him from service. As such, according to the opposite party, the complainant is not entitled for any relief.

4. Even though several adjournments were granted, the complainant did not adduce any evidence in support of his case. Subsequently, the complainant failed to appear before Court and he had to be declared ex parte. The opposite party filed an affidavit in support of the case of the opposite party. From the affidavit the case of the opposite party stands proved. The complainant has not succeeded to prove his case. He has not even cared to adduce any evidance in support of his case. Subsequently, the complainant also failed to appear before Court. The opposite party filed an affidavit in support of his case that the complainant was dismissed from service because on a proper domestic enquiry, the charges levelled against him were proved. It is also seen that there is no contravention of section 33 (2) of the Industrial Disputes Act by the opposite party in dismissing him from service. As such, I am to hold that the complainant is not entitled for any relief. An award is passed accordingly.

This award will come into force on the expiry of 30 days after its publication in the Government Gazette.

A. T. Kunhikora,
Presiding Officer.
